ADMISSION TO THE CCBC HONORS COLLEGE

The Honors College connects academically motivated students with dedicated faculty, mentors, and advisors who foster a community driven to pursue unique learning opportunities, explore new ideas, and thrive as scholars. Completing this application is a requirement for admission, offering students a chance to highlight their interest in Honors and their capability to thrive in a rigorous academic environment.

NOTE: Students who are not currently attending CCBC must also complete an application of admission to the College.

1. Evidence of academic potential:

High school: _____ Date of graduation (mo/yr): _____ / _____

High school GPA: _____ Optional with college transcript.

College GPA, if applicable: _____

Awards/Honors: (high school and/or college) _____

2. Essay

In at least 500 words, explain why you are interested in the CCBC Honors College, how your interest relates to your future plans, and why you think membership would enhance your academic experience. You might consider the importance of any of our core values: Critical Thinking, Civic Engagement, Research, Community, and Leadership. You need not address each of these areas in your response.

3. Academic Sample

Please submit a writing sample (or other scholarly project) on a topic of your choice. Your submission should demonstrate your ability to develop, explore, and analyze an academic concept.

Please take great care in writing your essay and choosing a writing sample. Both are given serious consideration as they help us understand who you are, what you value, and how you might contribute to the Honors Community. Your submissions should be in your own words. All paraphrases or quotes need to be cited.

4. Letters of recommendation (2 or 3):

Please have letters of recommendation from instructors who are familiar with your academic ability sent to the Honors College, and please list below the names of those people from whom we should expect letters.
